Tulsa, OK – In a recent blazing commercial published on its company website on Monday, August 9, 2021, Anytime Moving expressed the importance of giving back to the communities it serves with a local football icon appearing at midway through the spot. Within a week, the commercial had been viewed more than, 5,530 times within Anytime Moving’s followers across the state of Oklahoma.

“Here at BA, we use Anytime Moving. They’re locally owned and operated. We trust them because they are invested in our community and our students. If you have moving needs go with Anytime Moving.”

- Josh Blankenship, Head Coach Broken Arrow Football

Anytime Moving LLC started as a small operation in southeastern Oklahoma (Ada) in 2016. Within months, it earned the “Best Movers in Town” award serving nearly a 15-county radius and embedded those words in its Vision statement: To be the Best Movers in Town. Today, the Company serves the state, region, and nation for local or long-distance moves with operations out of Oklahoma City, Ada, and now Tulsa, OK. It is licensed with the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration and the Oklahoma Department of Transportation and maintains a perfect score with both agencies and has accumulated more than 100 (5-star) reviews from its customers.

In May of this year, Anytime sponsored Broken Arrow Public Schools’ athletic department, investing thousands of dollars into their well-known football program. Now, the company is actively searching more opportunities to invest and is now pledging to support 5 more school events or activities in the Tulsa or Oklahoma City area in the coming year.

In other recent news – Anytime was featured on Channel 2 news of Tulsa and Channel 4 of Oklahoma City, and appreciated for its help to an elderly woman and her son who were scammed by a competing out-of-state moving company. After hearing of the horror scam story, Anytime Moving stepped up to the plate and helped the family finish their move to Muskogee, Oklahoma – entirely free of charge.
